WHAT IS THE ECO-STUDIO?

The Eco-studio of the Prague City Gallery, located in the Troja Château's orangery, helps visitors develop their creativity, and offers a place to relax in a part of Prague that's otherwise frequently sought out by tourists. The studio is intended for anyone interested – children, schools, families, adults, seniors, or visitors with special needs. We're working both with groups and individuals.

Our programs aim to connect art with other important topics, such as ecology and environmental science. We utilize a wide variety of art techniques using various natural materials, allowing us to shed a light on the topic of recycling. Visitors can, for example, try making handmade paper, work with ceramic clay or textile, do wax batik, create things out of natural materials, make experimental jewelry, try land-art, and more.

WHAT PROGRAMS DOES THE ECO-STUDIO OFFER TO THE PUBLIC?

Throughout the school year, we prepare art workshops and other special programs (e.g. activities during the Open Gardens Weekend or Troja Wine Festival) for families with children, adults, and any other interested parties.

During the summer holidays (in July and August), we run all-day Summer Art Workshops. Several art stations, located in the Eco-studio throughout this event, introduce visitors to different art techniques and materials.

INFORMATION ABOUT PLANNED ACTIVITIES CAN BE FOUND ON OUR WEBSITE:

www.ghmp.cz/en/accompanying-events/ (see Accompanying Events). You can also contact our Education Department (contacts are in the flyer).

Even if you don't speak Czech yet, don't hesitate to visit us – our art activities don't require a lot of explanation. We'll be happy to show you everything and we're sure we can talk to each other without any issues. We look forward to seeing you!
