Accompanying events: www.ghmp.cz/en/accompanying-events/, or you can contact our Education Department (see contacts below).

What is the focus of our activities?

Our activities focus on various art areas such as film, graphic art, costumes and masks, lighting design, street art etc. Visitors can test out and experiment with a number of drawing, painting, graphic art and photography techniques.

Entry fee and registration:

Participating in most activities is free or for a symbolic fee. Some activities require prior registration (online).

Don't speak Czech?

Most information is currently only available in Czech or English.

But don't be afraid to visit us – our art activities don't require a lot of verbal explanation – we'll be happy to show you everything and surely we can find a way to understand each other.

Assistance and interpreting:

To mediate communication with the GHMP, you can use the free of charge services of intercultural workers. They'll be happy to help you understand the gallery activities, help you with registration and deal with other necessary steps. You will find the list of intercultural workers at the Prague for All website at www.metropolevseh.eu.
